Another big show is announced at the Broadway for the coming week. Messra, Jackson and Sheedy are doing their utmost to give Norwich nothing but acts of the topnotch order and have secured the talented Miss Rose Naynon and her $10.000 troups of the occasion would be borne in me or trained trained trained trained trained trained to the community of the control of t trained tropical birds. Miss Naymon and her act have just returned from a three years tour of Europe embracing every country and important city or the continent, having appeared for a five months' engagement in Paris alone. It would be impossible to give a correct description of the many new, wonderful and strange tricks these birds have been taught to accomplish at every performance, which are both interesting and amusing. The stare picture is a sight beautiful to behold, for there are one hundred birds in all. Displaying a tropical scene, with dozens of the prettient foreign birds of every spacies flying about and perched here and there, their bright and varicolored plumage shimmering in the light, it is a zight seldom seen on a stage, and will linger long in the memory of the beholders. BREED THEATER.

Big Bill of Feature Moving Pictures

Beginning this Monday, the Breed theater will show one of the finest programmes of moving pictures of the season, together with an unusually fine programme of songs, both illus-trated and high class. Mr. Delancy and Madame Morelle have made an extra effort to have this week's music better than any hereotopre offered and their numbers will come as an agreemble surprise to the public.

The attractive bill of the past week has served to bring out the last. The attractive bill of the past week has served to tring out the largest audiences yet, great interest being manifested in the picture, Modern Methods of Whaling in the Southern Waters, while At the Altar was a dramatic treat, and the intricate plot was revealed splendidly by the expert characters.

Increased Seating Capacity at Breed Theater.

For several weeks it has been apparent that the seating capacity of the Breed theater was not sufficient to meet the demands of the increasing attendance, and, being confronted with this fact, the owners have had the large room in the rear, used as a ladies' retiring room, opened into the main auditorium wherehy nearly a main auditorium, whereby nearly a hundred seats more are placed. It is a strange fact, but true that the extreme fear seats are almost invariably the first to fill, while the remarkable clearness of the pictures allows of those in the front seats to see equalist well.

We have them—a whole carlead. The finest stock ever shown in this city. Imperial Colonial and LaBelle, ranging in price from $6.00 to $20.06.

This additional seating space was used for the first time Saturday evening when both rooms were filled to overflowing, many comments of recommendation being heard on all sides upon the improvements.

In Filling Lamps, In filling reading lamps a small funnel which fits down into the opening is a great saving of time and patience to the busy house mother. The oil can then be poured without danger of spilling and half the bother of lamp filling averted. The size of funnel suitable for lamps can be had for five cents or less. for five cents or less.

I shall have two more carloads of those Lumber Norses from the White Mountains, and unless I am very much mistaken, there will be a buyer here today for every horse. These Lumber Horses are a great snap for you and for mo. I get them all. They are bought by the lumbermen in the fail and are worked hard all winter, and when spring comes they must be soid. I have a contract with the lumbermen that insures my setting them every year. Such horses are safe and aurt bargains. They are thin from very hard work, but give them just a little show and see how quickly they will fill out. Having worked hard all winter, they are thoroughly scollended and will start right in and work for yau all summer. PRICE $25.00 to $190.60. I shall have two more carloads o
